A wide-range multiphase equation of state for copper

Mikhaylov V N[@] and Elkin V M

Federal State Unitary Enterprise "Russian Federal Nuclear Center—Academician Zababakhin All-Russian Research Institute of Technical Physics", Vasilieva 13, Snezhinsk 456770, Russia

[@] v.n.mikhaylov@vniitf.ru

The work presents a semi-empirical multiphase equation of state for solid (fcc and bcc) and liquid copper with account for evaporation. For its parametrization we used available experimental data, and calculated results obtained from first principles and from model of Tomas-Fermi with Kopyshev's corrections.