

On the quasi-classical thermodynamics of electrons in plasma

Shpatakovskaya G.V.^{1,®}

¹ Keldysh Institute of Applied Mathematics of the Russian Academy of Sciences, Miusskaya Square 4, Moscow, 125047, Russia

® shpagalya@yandex.ru

A universal wide-range equation of state for electrons (RTF) based on tables for hydrogen is considered, which is based on the Thomas-Fermi statistical model. Its improved version in a consistent semi-classical approximation contains exchange, corrected gradient, and shell corrections. A simple approximation is proposed for the latter two in this work.